

JUNIOR FIRE CHIEF FOR A DAY CONTEST ENTRY FORM

Presented by Crime Stoppers Guelph Wellington

Do you have what it takes to be Junior Fire Chief for a Day in Centre Wellington?

Do you want to experience being a firefighter, learn about fire and emergency safety, and have some practical experience?

How to enter is identified below. You need to attend school in Centre Wellington and be a Centre Wellington resident. You could be selected as the Junior Fire Chief in Centre Wellington for a day. You will get to spend the day with Centre Wellington Fire Rescue, have a visit to your classroom with Centre Wellington Fire Rescue personnel, have lunch with Chief Mulvey, and receive your own Jr Fire Chief shirt to remember the day with. You will get to see Fire Rescue equipment up close, get to try fire related activities, and get tours of the Centre Wellington fire halls.

Enter this exciting contest for a chance to experience what it's like to lead your local fire department for a day! Proceeds from the Jr Fire Chief contest go to support Crime Stoppers Guelph Wellington.

How to Enter:

1. Complete this entry form.
2. Create and submit a fire escape plan for your home to be reviewed by Centre Wellington Fire Rescue.
3. Include a $10.00 entry fee through a donation on the Crime Stoppers Guelph Wellington website (or a cheque payable to Crime Stoppers Guelph Wellington if submitting by mail) and email to info@csgw.tips. If submitting a cheque, please add the child's name, grade and school to the back of the cheque.
4. <https://crimestoppersguelphwellington.com/support-us/> for online payment options. Indicate in the notes section the child's name, grade and school to coordinate the donation with the entry.
